

We started an in-white Archena for a release.
OK, so we have a game.
It's a word search game.
So we have had young cancer, top various topics
on lung cancer since morning.
So we have some 15 words regarding lung cancer in the game.
And we want all of you all to search those games.
So we have two prizes.
And the time limit is five minutes.
Just wait, let everyone get Archena weight for a full release, we just call it from getting the prize.
Please hold on.
Yes, you have to circle.
There is a list of 15 words which is given in the table
below the game.
So you have to look for those words.
You have to circle.
Of course, you have to write your name.
Write your name on the paper.
Has everyone got the papers?
Has everyone got the papers?
So time starts now, five minutes.
What's your killer arrow without print?
Mac killer.
You lose the opportunity.
Mac killer.
Yes.
Yes, fine.
John, you have 15 words.
The other words find out.
Carne, you have to ask me.
Yes.
Please solve it individually because the prize is individual,
not for a group.
So please solve it in the individual.
Other things, I don't know.
In the individual solve it, we have a yes,
so we have to hold the search.
Out of the OK, you're being appointed.
Thank you.
Before leaving the hall, I am supposed to collect your food coupon from this innocent chant.
Without the food coupon, you will not be allowed inside the cafeteria.
So, see to that all of you will get your food coupons before leaving the hall.
Two minutes left.
Okay, let's see, come by.
Why cannot I have a mind please?
What
are we going to achieve?
We are going to work it out.
In?
I
30 seconds and that is Thirty seconds.
My best security problem,
insignificant concern of the regular slices of a computer from the Vampire

[illegible]

Okay.
Okay.
Okay.
Okay.
Okay.
Okay.
Okay.
Okay.
Okay.
Okay.
Okay.
Okay.
Okay.
Okay.

So as we are getting our winners for the quiz,
I would like to propose a vote of thanks for today's session.
Towards the end of this beautiful day, full of academics inputs,
I take the privilege of proposing the vote of thanks for today's program.

Gratitude makes everything go.

The knowledge that we have revised today will surely be showcased in better patient outcomes.

I am grateful to the organizing committee of 8th annual year end review in lung cancer 2024 for arranging this session for the nursing fraternity.

We have been a part of this journey from the very first year of this conference.

I am obliged to direct a TMC Dr. Suddhi Gupta, direct a TMS Dr. Pramish for permitting us to be part of this event.

I extend my heartfelt thank you to Dr. Kumar Prabhash head of Department of Medical Oncology for ensuring that nurses become integral part of this event every year.

I owe my gratitude to our very own ever encouraging and supportive nursing superintendent Ms. Sindhu Nayar for her unwavering support throughout the execution of this event.

I am thankful to Dr. Harsh, Svatamam and all my dear friends who took up the responsibility of delivering such enriching sessions today to enhance our approach towards lung cancer.
We are deeply inducted to the constant support and help by
Mr. Nishant and team for the workshop.

Thank you, Nishant.

I am grateful to the entire nursing administration team and system charges from TMS and various other hospitals for deputting this staff for the workshop.

And lastly, thank you for all those who are present here for patient listening and being a wonderful audience.

We shall each one of you a very Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year ahead.

We go on the floor for Anchana because she has taken lots of effort, collective of own numbers, email ID and making the group and she was coordinating the whole session.

So, thank you so much, Anchana.

And she was a great coordinator for this workshop.

Thank you very much.

Thank you, Nishant.

We will announce in two minutes, but those who want to proceed for evening duty, only those girls will get up.

Otherwise, the rest of you will sit for five minutes because we have to, those who are winners for we have to really encourage and I understand everybody is in hurry. But I think we have spent half the day now, five minutes at them so we can just wait for the winners. We will announce the winners soon.
